Thirsting for the Lord

50 prophetic declarations to stir hunger, deepen pursuit and draw you into fresh encounter

Prophetess Shamika Rich · The River of God Evangelistic Church · Albany, Georgia

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Let your thirst become a cry.

Thirst is not a weakness in the life of a believer. It is an invitation. Every holy longing in you was placed there by the One who longs to fill it. These declarations were written to stir that longing, to break spiritual dryness, and to turn your hunger into pursuit.

“Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters.”

ISAIAH 55:1

How to use these declarations

- Speak them aloud. Faith comes by hearing (Romans 10:17). Let your own voice declare what God has said.
- Take one section a day. Ten sections make a ten-day journey of pursuit.
- Pray the scripture first. Each section opens with a verse. Read it slowly, then declare.
- Use them together. Declare them as a family, a prayer team or a ministry before worship.
- Write what you receive. Keep a journal of what the Holy Spirit speaks as you pursue Him.

A CLOSING PRAYER

Come to the waters.

Lord, I come thirsty. Fill every dry place with Your Spirit. Let rivers of living water flow out of me to my family, my city and my generation. I will not settle for less than Your presence. In Jesus' name, Amen.

"In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink." (John 7:37)
